Paid training, ongoing guidance, and an open-door policy

Regional, national (and possibly international) travel opportunities

A fun, team-oriented work environment with a positive atmosphere

Flexible hours and responsibilities based on individual career goals

A detailed payment and advancement structure

Great work life balance

Be part of a culture that thrives on teamwork

Marketing Interns will receive recognition, rewards and other incentives for setting and breaking records, improved performance, high rolling, assisting new team members and more!

Requirements/Recommendations

There are no specific educational requirements, but a good portion of our team either has a marketing or business degree or is working towards their marketing or business degree. There aren't any specific work requirements either, but most people have some experience in retail sales, food service, customer service, or other roles involving customer interaction.

All of our interns are required to attend the office daily therefore we are looking for interns local to the Vancouver region (this is NOT a remote position). All candidates will need to have authorization to work within Canada and be over the age of 18.
