8. Co-op Coordinator, Student Development

University of Toronto • Greater Toronto Area, Canada (Hybrid)

https://www.linkedin.com/jobs/search/?currentJobId=3684958189&f_WT=3&keywords=co%20op%20student&originalSubdomain=ca&sortBy=R

Your opportunity:

Working under the direction of the Assistant Director, Student Services, the incumbent works with a team of dedicated student development staff to prepare students to successfully compete for co-op work opportunities. Student Development Coordinators work with first and second year students across the Arts & Science disciplines who are preparing to search for their first co-op work term position. This includes developing and delivering content for in-person or online instructional workshops as well as supporting students one-on-one through advising and coaching regarding job search cycles, process and strategies, creating effective job search documents, preparing and conducting interviews, and preparing to compete for a first co-op work term.

This search aligns with the University's commitment to strategically and proactively promote diversity among our community members (Statement on Equity, Diversity & Excellence). Recognizing that Black, Indigenous, and other Racialized communities have experienced inequities that have developed historically and are ongoing, we strongly welcome and encourage candidates from those communities to apply.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Advising and coaching students on work search strategies and skill

- Advising students on techniques to improve their interviewing skills
- Providing regular feedback to students on progress, assessments and assignments
- Advising students on how to conduct job searches, cover letter and resume development
- Developing content for instructional workshops
- Conducting detailed analysis on program efficiency and student learning outcomes to inform program planning activities
- Updating and maintaining records
- Providing proactive support to individuals in distress and making referrals to specific university services
